Burt & Company Acquires TaosCPA

September 11, 2017 – Burt & Company CPAs, one of New Mexico’s largest CPA firms, has acquired TaosCPA. The company has formed a new entity, Burt Taos CPAs, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Burt & Company, and will provide accounting services to its Northern New Mexico clientele.

“We have prided ourselves on being a great local firm that provides exemplary service to our clients,” said Ron Schranz, Burt & Company managing partner. “With our expansion now in Taos, we can provide even greater one-on-one services to our clients in Northern New Mexico.”

Fred Winter of TaosCPA said, “The new firm will have more resources and more manpower available to provide even better service to clients.”

Burt Taos CPAs provides a full range of accounting and consulting services to closely held New Mexico businesses and their owners, non-profit organizations, and government entities. The office is located at 630 Paseo del Pueblo Sur, #175 in Taos.
